

BULLETIN № 1

GENERAL INFORMATION

The European Shooting Championship 10m will take place in Moscow, Russia, at Olimpiyskiy Sports Complex, from 26 February to 6 March 2014. All the members of the European Shooting Confederation are invited to participate without any exception.

The European Shooting Championship 10m in Moscow will include Qualification competitions for the 2014 Youth Olympic Games in Nanjing, China. Europe is awarded the biggest number of the quota places for the Youth Olympic Games. 24 of them will be disputed in Moscow.

1. THE VENUE

The Olimpiyskiy Sports Complex is located in the very heart of Moscow. Address: Olimpiyskiy Avenue, 16. Phone: +7-495-786-33-33. Website: <http://www.olimpik.ru/>
The arena will be transformed into a fully equipped electronic shooting range in respect with ISSF and ESC Rules with a total of 90 firing lines for rifle and pistol, 4 firing lines for running target and 10 firing lines for rifle and pistol finals. The ranges will be equipped with SIUS Ascor electronic targets. All offices, storage, equipment control, nations' rooms etc. are located under the same roof for a compact Championship experience.

3. ENTRY PROCESS

The competition will be conducted according to ISSF and ESC Rules and Regulations.

The maximum number of athletes per event will be three (3) as indicated in the ESC “General Regulations” (article 6.5.5.1). Final Entries for Shooters and for Officials must be made by online registration at <http://entry.issf-sports.info>. The ISSF Online Registration Service will be available starting November 2013. Final Entries can by exception be faxed to ISSF Headquarters at +49 89 544 355 44. All other forms, except Annexes 2, 3, 4 and 9, must be sent to the Organizing Committee at info@ech2014.com. Please see Annex 6.1, 6.2, 6.3 and 6.4.

Any athlete, who participates in the Youth Olympic Games Qualification event, can participate also in the same senior or junior event of the Championship. All entries for participation in the Youth Olympic Games Qualification must be done through the ISSF.

ISSF ID Number

According to ESC and ISSF General Regulations, all shooters must have an ISSF ID Number before participation in any ISSF supervised competition or Championship. Shooters without an ISSF ID Number will not be allowed to participate in the competition.

Entry fees

WHEN MAKING BANK TRANSFER PLEASE INDICATE YOUR COUNTRY
(eg. "ENGLAND_shooting_team" or "shooting-Hungary")
SO THE BANK COULD DEFINE WHO THE SENDER IS

The deposit payment must be done no later than 27 January 2014.

All amounts must be paid in Euro and include any transfer fees or similar that the bank may charge.

The remaining 30% of the amount due must be paid upon arrival before the start of the competitions in Russian roubles cash according to the exchange rate of the Central Bank of the Russian Federation on the day of payment.

Late Entries

Late Entries will be allowed only according to ISSF rule 3.7.3.4.

Any additional entries received after the deadline of three (3) days before the Official Arrival may not participate (ISSF Rule 3.7.3.5).

Replacements

Replacement of a registered shooter by another already registered shooter is permitted. This change can only be made before 12.00 am the day before the Pre Event Training for that event (ISSF Rule 3.7.3.6).

Cancellations

Any federation reducing the number of shooters and/or officials after the Final Entry deadline is obliged to pay all applicable fees and costs including entry fees according to the number of shooters and entries on the Final Entry Forms originally received. If the applicable fees and costs are not paid no member of that federation may participate (ISSF Rule 3.7.4.3).

4. VISA

Most nations in Europe require a visa to visit Russia. Each participating Federation must check the requirements for Visa well in advance. More information can be found at the Russian Consulate of your country.

Each participating federation must fill out the “Visa Support Form” and return to the Organizing Committee according to the deadline. Please see Annex 7

5. IMPORT OF AIR WEAPONS AND AMMUNITION

Any delegation or individual athletes, who carry air weapons and/or ammunition, must declare them at customs. Upon arrival and receiving the luggage they have to fill in a customs declaration (2 copies), where it is necessary to indicate all air weapons and ammunition, and then go to the Red Channel of the customs. A representative of the Organizing Committee will be waiting by the customs and will help to fill in the declarations and get a stamp of the customs. After that the delegations and individual athletes, escorted by the representative of the Organizing Committee, must proceed to the bus and go to the venue. Over there all weapons and ammunitions will be taken for a guarded storage in a special room.

During the competitions the air weapons will be given and taken back to the storage. It is strongly not recommended to take the air weapons to the hotel, because, according to the Russian laws, the security of the hotel can withdraw the weapons till special investigation.

On the day of the departure the delegations and individual athletes must get back their air weapons at the venue and with the assistance of the representative of the Organizing Committee accomplish the same procedure as during the entrance to the country by filling in the customs declarations (2 copies) and going through the Red Channel.
